

International Council

Committee Charge

The Mission is to support SCA's outreach to the international community of cardiac and thoracic anesthesiologists.

The Goals are to provide support for the Society's international efforts. Specific objectives include facilitating the coordination of all internal and external requests for international collaboration and to assist in the mission and the organization of a bi-annual international meeting with the leadership of the newly formed International Academy of Cardiac Anesthesiologists (ie, IACA). Specific duties and responsibilities include participating in the selection process of a host partner society/country for the IACA meeting and helping with the coordination of the international part of the IACA program; to facilitate the creation of an International Session at the SCA Annual Meeting, to increase the involvement of international members in the Societies' affairs, and to assist in the identification of international member needs to better serve them.
